

CITY OF SHAKOPEE
ON SALE WINE LICENSE
APPLICATION PACKET

Included here are the instructions as well as the necessary application forms. Please read through these instructions carefully before filing out the forms. Applicants should be aware that once all requested paperwork has been submitted, there are three phases of the license approval process:

1. Police Investigation
 - o A background check by the Police Department on all applicants must be completed before the application for license can be put before the City Council for approval.
 - o The police investigation will not proceed until all of the paperwork requested herein has been submitted.
 - o A minimum of two weeks must be allotted for said investigation.

2. Shakopee City Council Approval
 - o City Council must approve the application at a regularly scheduled Council meeting. (City Council meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month.)
 - o The application will not be placed on the Council agenda for consideration until the police investigation is completed, and all applicable fees are paid.
 - o City Building Inspector must conduct a building inspection prior to issuance of the license.

3. State of Minnesota Alcohol Enforcement Division
 - o All wine licenses approved at the City level are subsequently forward to the State of Minnesota Alcohol Enforcement Division for their approval and inspection.
