

Crime Free Multi-Housing Training, Phase I

April 21 • 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Shakopee Police Department Training Room • 475 Gorman St., Shakopee

Cost: $30 per person

Cost includes training materials, speakers, and lunch.

The Crime Free Multi-Housing (CFMH) program is designed to reduce crime, drugs, illegal, and nuisance activity in rental communities. CFMH is pro-manager, pro-resident, and anti-crime. CFMH is a must for anyone who is involved in rental housing, including single family rental owners.

Benefits

- A stable, more satisfied resident base
- Increased demand on rental units
- Lower maintenance and repair costs
- Improved personal safety for residents and employees

Pre-registration is required

- The registration fee includes materials, continental breakfast, snacks and lunch
- Registration deadline: April 14
- The entire 8 hour training is required for CFMH Phase I certification. Late arrivals may be denied entrance into training; no refunds.

Registration Form

Please complete a separate form for each person attending the training. Make copies as needed.

Waiver: The training and landlord guide provided by your local police department is intended to foster healthy and safe neighborhoods through landlord involvement to reduce drug dealing and other illegal activity in the community. The manual and training should not be regarded as legal advice or considered a replacement for the landlord's responsibility to be familiar with the law. In that regard, I release the police department and its employees from all liability from my participation in this training program.
